Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Six South Dakota women, all Queens in their own national competition, have brought great honor and prestige to this state and its people; and,

WHEREAS, Robin Bail, a coed from Buffalo, is one of our shining stars who is the reigning Miss National College Rodeo; and,

WHEREAS, Nancy Hoar, the latest edition to this elite group, is a Rapid City woman who in August was named the national Little Britches Rodeo Queen; and,

WHEREAS, Donna Keffler, crowned last December at the National Rodeo Finals in Oklahoma City, delighted her home town of Sturgis by being selected Miss Rodeo America; and,

WHERAS, Jerilyn LeBeau, a Cheyenne River Sioux from Eagle Butte has brought honor to her people and to the state as the National Miss Indian America for 1981-1982; and,

WHEREAS, Diane Mackaben, along with being a legislative intern in Pierre, is known to South Dakota, especially her friends and family in Belle Fourche, as our own Miss World Rodeo; and,

WHEREAS, Leslie Patten, a teenager from Belle Fourche, is recognized throughout the country as the National High School Rodeo Queen; and,

WHEREAS, Above are listed six national Queens who are all from South Dakota. This is a feat unparalleled in the world of talent and scholarship competition. We owe a great deal to these young women for showing the world the spirit, determination, beauty, and class that is uniquely South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 15, 1982, as in South Dakota, in deference to the six wonderful women whose delightful presence has focused the eyes of an envious world on our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, In Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of September, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
